SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO. [REDACTED]

1. The First National Communist Agrarian Conference of Colombia, which will take place on 1-4 May 1949, is scheduled to be held in Cajamarca, Department of Tolima, Colombia. This site was chosen because of the excellent cooperation given by the people of the area to the Communists during a recent meeting of the Partido Comunista de Colombia (PCC - Communist Party of Colombia) in that section. At that meeting a resolution pledging 400 pesos for the Agrarian Conference was approved. Another resolution called for the recruitment of 100 new Party members during the next four months.
2. In preparation for the Agrarian Conference the PCC wishes to secure the following information, which is not available at the present time as the proposed agricultural census has not been made by the government.
 - a. Approximate number of farm workers who work for wages.
 - b. Approximate number of small farm owners who work part time for others and the amount of land owned by such individuals as a class and per person.
 - c. The number of small landowners who, while employing others, also work on the land themselves; the amount of land owned as a class and per person.
 - d. Number of large landowners and amount of land owned or held by them, including uncultivated land.
 - e. The percentage of large landowners among the clergy, capitalists, foreign or government enterprises.
 - f. Total acreage in Colombia which is cultivated and that which could be cultivated.
 - g. Figures on agricultural products used in industry.
 - h. Annual importation of agricultural products which could easily be produced in Colombia.
 - i. Information on the economic situation of the farm class and on their political attitude.
 - j. Number of Indians included in tribal communities and the total amount of land occupied by such groups in the various departments.
